Additional information

A responsible entity can only apply for deregistration of a scheme in one of the following circumstances:

1. the scheme has 20 or less members, all the members agree to the deregistration of the scheme, and the scheme is not otherwise required to be registered by s601ED(1)(b) or (c) of the Corporations Act 2001 "the Act"; or
2. all the issues of interests in the scheme were excluded issues and all the members agree to the deregistration of the scheme; or
3. the scheme is not a managed investment scheme.

Refer to s601ED(4) of the Act to work out how many members the scheme has. The subsection deals with joint holders of interests in the scheme and interests held on trust.

Under s601ED(1)(b) of the Act, a scheme must be registered if it was promoted by a person, or an associate, who was, at the time, in the business of promoting managed investment schemes, regardless of the number of members of the scheme.

S601ED(1)(c) concerns a determination by ASIC that closely related schemes must be registered.

The responsible entity must provide, as an annexure, documentation that supports its case for deregistering the scheme in the circumstance indicated
